LIVING ON PURPOSE

“Everything About You Matters” Part 1

Dr. Rich Wilkerson, Sr. / July 12, 2020

Habakkuk 2:1-4 – I will stand at my watch
and station myself on the ramparts;
I will look to see what he will say to me,
and what answer I am to give to this complaint.

² Then the LORD replied:

“Write down the revelation
and make it plain on tablets
so that a herald may run with it.

³ For the revelation awaits an appointed time;
it speaks of the end
and will not prove false.
Though it linger, wait for it;
it will certainly come
and will not delay.

⁴ “See, the enemy is puffed up;
his desires are not upright—
but the righteous person will live by his faithfulness

CHOOSING YOUR PERSONAL MISSION STATEMENT

You are God's unique creation and He has a custom life plan just for you! Your mission statement is your guide to fulfilling that plan. By doing the hard work to dig deep, you will actively engage concepts for your own growth!

Discovering your mission is priority as you prepare to develop your leadership and growth capacity. Greatness in the kingdom of heaven isn't about doing more than someone else; it's about making the most of what you've been given.

Read the questions below to yourself, then write your answers as clearly as possible, conveying your best self. Your answers will give you the clarity you need to write your mission statement!

Remember, your mission statement is a short, written document. To be really helpful to you it should be easy for you to quickly state in three to five sentences. Let it flow from your heart!

The purpose of writing your mission statement is to understand that you can be intentional now of what you are creating and why you are doing it!

What is important? What/whom do you value?

Where do I want to go? You can answer this many different ways.

What does "the best" look like for me?

How do I want to act?

What does my relationship with God and my relationships with others look like?

What kind of legacy do I want to leave behind?

Now, look back at your answers to the questions. Create a vision in your head of that person. The person you want to be, the life you want to live, the relationships you want to have, and the legacy you want to leave. Use that vision to create your personal mission statement.

Sample Mission statements:

"To serve as a leader, live a balanced life, and apply ethical principles to make a significant difference

"My life purpose, to love and honor God, is foundational. My professional purpose is to be a 'Builder' of a future that transcends ways of working for the wellbeing of people and businesses throughout the world."

"To love, honor, and serve God with all my heart and soul. My work and personal life will reflect my relationship with him as I love and honor others and perform the tasks God sets before me."
