Genesis 33:18-19 – “About Zebulun he said: “Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out, and you, Issachar, in your tents. They will summon peoples to the mountain and there offer the sacrifices of the righteous; they will feast on the abundance of the seas, on the treasures hidden in the sand.”

MORAL IMAGINATION – An important trait in troubled times is moral imagination.

We must locate believers who will risk and stay embodied in the immorality (crisis) because people are in need of care, while at the same time mentally repositioning themselves outside the crisis to architect a future design that is moral.

Daniel 1:20 – In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king questioned them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters in his whole kingdom.

Daniel 5:12 – “He did this because Daniel, whom the king called Belteshazzar, was found to have a keen mind and knowledge and understanding, and also the ability to interpret dreams, explain [enigmas] and solve difficult problems. Call for Daniel, and he will tell you what the writing means.”
