

TAKEN BLESSED BROKEN GIVEN

Pastor Taylor Wilkerson | Trinity New York

Luke 24:13-16 NIV — Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. <sup>15</sup> As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; <sup>16</sup> but they were kept from recognizing him.

Luke 24:30-35 NIV — When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. <sup>31</sup> Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. <sup>32</sup> They asked each other, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?”

<sup>33</sup> They got up and returned at once to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven and those with them, assembled together <sup>34</sup> and saying, “It is true! The Lord has risen and has appeared to Simon.” <sup>35</sup> Then the two told what had happened on the way, and how Jesus was recognized by them when he broke the bread.

Mark 14:22 NIV — While they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take it; this is my body.”

Matthew 14:19 NIV — Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke the loaves. Then he gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people.

Matthew 2:1 NIV — After Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the time of King Herod, Magi from the east came to Jerusalem.

John 6:35 NIV — Then Jesus declared, “I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty. Jesus is the bread of life.

Taken out of Heaven

Blessed by the Father

Broken on the Cross

Given as Atonement for Sin

1 Corinthians 10:17 NIV — Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all share the one loaf.

Taken. Blessed. Broken. Given.

1 Peter 2:9-10 NIV — But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God’s special possession, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

1 Thessalonians 1:4 NIV — For we know, brothers and sisters loved by God, that he has chosen you, You aren’t worthy, You’re chosen. God has taken you from your past, your sin, your shame.

Luke 3:22 NIV — And a voice came from heaven: “You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased.”

Isaiah 53:5-6 NIV — But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed. <sup>6</sup> We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to our own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

Luke 19:41-42 NIV — As he approached Jerusalem and saw the city, he wept over it <sup>42</sup> and said, “If you, even you, had only known on this day what would bring you peace—but now it is hidden from your eyes.

Matthew 28:19-20 NIV — Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, <sup>20</sup> and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”
